The Pennsylvania Public Relations Society (PPRS) Student Development Committee encourages full-time Pennsylvania college/university students majoring in a communications-related field of study, i.e. public relations, journalism or mass communications, to apply for the PPRS $1,000 Communication Scholarship.

Selection Criteria

One $1,000 scholarship recipient will be selected based on the following criteria:

1. A legal Pennsylvania resident
2. A full-time student who will begin his or her junior or senior year in the fall of 2022 while majoring in a communications-related discipline at an accredited Pennsylvania college or university
3. Academic achievement requiring a current college grade point average of 2.75 or higher, based on a 4.0 scale
4. Extracurricular activities and campus/community involvement
5. Strong writing skills

Application Requirements

Please compile and mail the following documents, postmarked by Wednesday, March 16, 2022, or e-mailed by Friday, March 18, 2022, to the contact listed below to be considered for the scholarship:

1. A completed application form, including a personal essay submitted on a separate sheet of paper.
2. Official college/university transcript with most recent semester grades (in sealed envelope from college/university; fall 2021 grades are acceptable)
3. Two letters of recommendation (in sealed envelopes or emailed directly from the recommender to PPRSHbg@gmail.com with your name and "PPRS scholarship recommendation" in the subject line.) One of the letters must be submitted by a public relations/mass communications/journalism professor or faculty member from your respective school (a teaching assistant who has taught you is an acceptable reference). The second reference should come from a professional who can speak to your ability to apply public relations skills (an internship or practicum supervisor, work-study or work supervisor, or club advisor for whom you completed public relations tasks).

Return the completed application to:

Dr. Nance McCown
107 Fairway Dr.
Dillsburg, PA 17019

Questions may be directed to PPRS Scholarship Chair Nance McCown via:

PPRSHbg@gmail.com

The completed application must be postmarked on or before Wednesday, March 16, 2022 or e-mailed by Friday, March 18, 2022. A committee comprised of PPRS members will review all applications. All applicants will be notified of the selection results. The scholarship winner (and family) will be invited to an upcoming PPRS meeting for formal recognition, including the check presentation. The $1,000 award check will be made payable to the winning student and his or her college/university bursar's office.

PPRS does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, creed, color, gender, religion, nationality, disability, lifestyle or sexual orientation. PPRS reserves the right not to award a scholarship in any given year without recourse. The decision of PPRS is final. All information submitted to the PPRS Student Development Committee will remain confidential.

The Pennsylvania Public Relations Society is the oldest organization of public relations professionals in the greater Harrisburg area. Meetings are held in the Harrisburg area the last Thursday of the month from January through June and September. The Ernest R. McDowell for Excellence in Public Relations Award Dinner is held in November. Joint summer and winter socials with PRSA round out the programming year.
